

PRIVACY COLLECTION NOTICE - PATIENTS

Cura Day Hospitals Group Pty Ltd (ACN 125245409) (Cura) and its subsidiaries collect personal information about individuals for a range of purposes to enable it to carry out its functions. Cura's privacy policy is available at www.curagroup.com.au. If you would prefer a printed version, please let us know by contacting us on 08 8239 4900. Further details about the collection of your personal information are provided below.

Who is collecting your personal information

Your personal information is being collected by Cura Day Hospitals Group Pty Ltd (ACN 125245409) (Cura) and its subsidiaries wherever located within Australia.

The contact details for Adelaide Day Surgery are:

Street address: 18 North Terrace, Adelaide SA 5000;

Collection of your personal information

Your personal information is collected:

- from you when you provide personal information to us, including by completing admission forms, questionnaires and surveys; when observations are taken; when you report information to our staff about your health; and in some cases by way of photographs taken of you for a clinical purpose,
- from your relatives who may be able to provide us with information relevant to your healthcare where it is unreasonable or impracticable to collect information directly from you;
- from third party health service providers, including your doctors and pathology companies;
- Medicare, DVA and/or your health insurer.

Authority for collection

As a health service provider, we are required to collect and keep medical records of patients receiving services at our facilities.

Why does Cura collect your personal information?

We collect your personal information in order to provide health services to you at our facility. We also use the information for management of our services.

You may be asked to participate in research projects which involve the collection of your personal information. Participation in research is entirely voluntary.

What would happen if Cura did not collect your personal information?

If Cura does not collect your personal information we may not be able to provide healthcare services to you. If we do not collect all of your relevant health information, this may pose a risk to your health as we will be using incomplete information to make care decisions. It may also impact on your ability to claim Medicare, DVA or private health insurance refunds.

Who will Cura disclose your personal information to?

We disclose your health information for the purposes of providing a health service to you and managing that service. For example, we disclose your personal information to other health service providers (e.g. your doctor and pathology companies) and our staff involved in your care or providing administrative support. We may also provide discharge summaries to your treating Surgeon.

We disclose your personal information to Medicare, DVA and your private health insurer for billing and regulatory purposes.

Access to and correction of your personal information

Our privacy policy contains information about how you may access and seek correction of personal information about you that Cura holds.

Privacy complaints

Our privacy policy contains information about how you may complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles and how Cura deals with complaints.

Overseas disclosure of your personal information

It is unlikely that Cura will disclose personal information to entities outside of Australia.
